SEA CLOUD
C R U I S E S

Our special highlights on the cruise SCII-1934:

Two tall ships on the same course

Few and far between are the occasions, on which one can experience two fascinating windjammers together and directly compare their manoeuvres. Sailing from Casablanca to Las Palmas, the two SEA CLOUD sisters follow the same course for several days. When both yachts glide along side by side under full sail, they offer a truly breathtaking spectacle.

An evening from "1001 nights"

Morocco enralls with impressive culture and a rich history that tells of martial Berber tribes, Roman legionnaires and Arabic conquerors. An exclusive event for the guests of SEA CLOUD and SEA CLOUD II: Immerse yourself in Arabic history and experience an evening from "1001 nights" with fire eaters, acrobats, oriental dancers and culinary delights from the Moroccan cuisine.

On board: Wahabi Nouri

Moroccan-born Wahabi Nouri came to Germany when he was three years old. Early on, he discovered his passion for cooking and learned the trade from Harald Wohlfahrt, one of the best chefs in Germany. Nouri achieved his personal dream in 2000 when he opened a small but fine restaurant in Hamburg: "Piment" was awarded its first Michelin star in 2001 and has kept this ever since. The "Gault Millau" describes Nouri's style of cooking as "a cleverly devised creative cuisine that transforms the seemingly simple into the very best". When asked which cuisine he considers the best in the world, he does not have to think long: "the Moroccan cuisine." On board the SEA CLOUD II, Nouri will present his cuisine with a dinner menu.

Depending upon the circumstances, it is possible that another guest chef will join this cruise instead.

SAILING TOGETHER

When the SEA CLOUD meets the SEA CLOUD II and they sail together, there is a real sense of joy at the reunion of these two ships. As soon as the captains have established radio contact, the unique experience can begin: One moment, the windjammers glide majestically side by side; then again they compete in a playful race under full sail, offering some stunning photo opportunities.

Sailing Together

The magic of the orient, the diversity of the Canaries, and sailing with the SEA CLOUD: Málaga – Las Palmas

The imperial city of Rabat

Rabat, the capital of Morocco, is one of the country's four imperial cities. Rabat's iconic landmark, the Hassan Tower, was built when the city was the capital of the Sultanate. The tower is now located within one of the city's upmarket residential areas. With its various districts, this city has many facets. The traditional souk with its surrounding wall can still be found in the old town, and the Ville Nouvelle offers magnificent boulevards and Art Deco buildings.

Lanzarote and its famous architect

With his vision of a harmonious link between mankind and nature, César Manrique transformed Lanzarote into a work of art. This surrealist painter, architect, sculptor, designer and conservationist created colourful wind chimes and wall mosaics, turned lava caves into homes and tirelessly fought to ensure the preservation of the natural and cultural identity of his island of birth.

Magic forest and moonscape: two famous national parks

These two UNESCO World Natural Heritage Sites could hardly be more different: While the evergreen cloud forest Garajonay at the heart of La Gomera offers fascinating scenery made up of rivers, waterfalls and dense moss, Tenerife's Las Cañadas del Teide national park is extremely dry. With tall lava tongues and bizarre rock formations, its volcanic landscape looks almost like the surface of the moon.

Moorish, marvellous and magical – a journey of discovery to Andalusia’s oriental heritage: Palma de Mallorca – Casablanca

A fascinating mix in Valencia

Many bygone eras have left their mark on Valencia, but this historical legacy is juxtaposed with an impressive mixture of magnificent modern buildings. It is this vast spectrum that gives the city its unique appeal. The off-beat design of the opera house appears futuristic, with the building situated in an expansive museum and park district that stretches from the city centre all the way to the coast.

Málaga – city of culture

Much more than just “Costa” and “Sol”: As the second largest city in Andalusia, in recent years Málaga has evolved into a true destination of culture. Next to classic sites like the cathedral and the Moorish Alcazaba, Picasso’s birthplace entices with surprisingly varied museums that focus on topics from archaeology and modern art to automobile design, wine, and glass.

The gentle pace of life in Cádiz

History comes alive in the city of Cádiz. One of Europe’s oldest cities, this charming harbour town boasts a beautiful cathedral and baroque buildings, a tranquil old town and defiant watch towers. The town centre, with its delightful tapas bars, can be easily explored on foot from the harbour. And there is no shortage of good wine, as Jerez de la Frontera, with its sherry and wine cellars, is close by.
